God, Guns, Grits, and Gravy is a useful source for observers looking for the ways in which the Republican Party and the conservative movement transformed from the Bush years to the nomination of Donald Trump for President in 2016. On the surface Huckabee’s manifesto is obsessed with the same concerns which powered President George W. Bush’s successful reelection campaign in 2004 - national security, God, guns, and gays.

Bing: God Guns Grits And Gravy

God, Guns, Grits and Gravy is a fairly typical offering from a presidential candidate. The book is a glorification of the southern lifestyle, but reads mostly like a set of talking points on issues that Governor Huckabee wants to ride to the White house. But it's hard to see how railing against reality TV helps him get there.
