Question: "Is it true that everything happens for a reason?" Answer: Does everything happen for a reason? The short answer is "yes"; because God is sovereign, there are no random, out-of-control happenings. God's purposes may be hidden from us, but we can be assured that every event has a reason behind it.

"Everything Happens For A Reason" (Until It Doesn't) - YouTube

The problem with "everything happens for a reason" is that it's incomplete. There's an important and life-giving truth at its heart: good things can come from bad ones, and they often do. Sometimes (though not always) we even get to see the ways our heartbreaks lead to something better, and that process helps us make peace.

It Happens For A Reason

Everything happens for a reason because we live in a limit based space (speed of light for example) that runs on a cause ---- effect relationship. The downside is that the reason is not always given to you. For example mental illness, why bad things happen to good people, why God answers some prayers & not others. The list goes on & on.

5 Reasons Why Everything Happens For A Reason In Life ...

Sometimes good things happen and we wonder how we got so lucky; sometimes things go wrong and we get frustrated or confused as to why. Often, there's no direct answer except that that's just life. However, I do think that everything happens for a reason, both good and bad experiences. You may not know what that reason is until much later, but it's there.
