Red Hill: Amazon.co.uk: McGuire, Jamie: 9781471133367: Books

Obviously, Jamie McGuire is a romance writer so Red Hill didn't have the kind of detailed storytelling that most thriller books have. I'm not going to nitpick but it's just because I'm probably used to reading lengthy and very descriptive horror/thriller/sci-fi books. Having said that, I very much loved the plot and how everything seemed to be connected. Very entertaining! :)

Books similar to Red Hill (Red Hill, #1) - Goodreads

This is a companion novel to Red Hill by Jamie McGuire from the perspective of Scarlet's daughter, Jenna. Their journey to Red Hill is just as treacherous as her mother's was. Again, she weaves the storylines together in a way where almost all of the characters have crossed paths before. (In one case, it was a Ford Taurus.)

Red Hill 1 Jamie McGuire

On the Red Hill is an extraordinary book: brave and ground-breaking. It is far more than a queer and Welsh Howards End. Gossipy, inquisitive, confessional, lyrical, elegiac and camp-ly witty by turns, Parker offers us an unexpected and important meditation on change and on belonging, presenting four different gay lives associated with a single house. He shows us what it is that makes these ...
